Achieving Biliteracy, Tolerance, and Social Justice

A fair and just relationship between individuals and society.

A process of ensuring that individuals fulfill their societal roles and receive what was due from their society.

The fair and proper administration of laws conforming to the natural laws that all persons irrespective of ethnic origin, gender, possessions, race, religion, etc are to be treated equally and without prejudice.

My Message to President Trump

Picture our world with dark with fear
Picture our world with blood with tears
People of color on the floor from a sleep they will never awaken
A little boy who lost his dad no one would help him
Isn’t that sad?
Millions of kids who lost everything when all they wanted was to fill there dreams
To be treated equally
So what good is a world with you in front?
Tell your policemen they have to stop!
What good is a world with white no black?
What good is a world without color?
